SNOW COVERS THE ALPINE COUNTRY

Fall Is Not Heavy and Damage, If Any, Is Slight.

Alpine, Tex., Jan. 15.—The sleet and snow Saturday continued for several hours, covering the entire county. The fall was not heavy. Range is benefited, and stock has not been injured.

Three Deaths From Cold.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 15.—From two above zero here the mercury rose gradually to 25 degrees above last night. Three deaths from the severe cold were reported.

Train Freezes to Track.

Brick, Tenn., Jan. 15.—Norfolk and Western Washington-Chatanooga train froze to the tracks when it stopped at Lynchburg, Va. Dripping water hardened quickly in the zero weather and the wheels were locked so securely in the ice that three engines were required to move the train.

Hundreds Walk Across River.

Alton, Ill., Jan. 15.—Several hundred people have walked across the Mississippi river at this point for the first time since 1895.

Runaway Nearly Frozen.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 15.—With the thermometer registering 18 degrees below zero, Carl Faulkenberg, a 17-year-old fugitive from a Minnesota state industrial school at Redwing, rode 75 miles on the pilot of a locomotive and was nearly frozen to death. His hands feet and face were frozen.

Man Found Frozen.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Jan. 15.—Charles H. Reagan was found frozen to death west of this city today.

NO MENINGITIS, BUT SCHOOLS CLOSE

Suspicious Case at Midland Is Promptly Isolated and Recovers

Midland, Tex., Jan. 15.—Midland has so far escaped the scourge of meningitis. Only one case has developed which was promptly isolated and completely recovered, and has now almost completely recovered.

As a precautionary measure, however, the authorities decided to close the schools and churches and to suspend the regular public gatherings.

A cold northern storm struck Midland, it was accompanied by rain and snow. The record for extreme range in temperature was broken, the thermometer falling in a few hours from 62 to 9 degrees.

Missionary Conference Postponed.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 15.—Due to the meningitis epidemic now prevailing throughout the state, the Southwestern Missionary conference of the Episcopal church, which was to have been held here commencing on January 15-16, and to have been participated in by delegates and bishops of six states, has been postponed to a later date. This action was taken on the recommendation of state health officer Ralph Storer as members of the delegates would come from infected points.

Letter To Jenkins Jan. 4.

The letter referred to in this interview reads:

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 4, 1915.

Mr. R. P. Jenkins, chief of police, El Paso, Texas.

Dear Sir:—I have received complaints recently from certain sources to the effect that a number of saloons are violating the law by not closing promptly at 12 o'clock at night, and also some are selling drinks on Sunday. I wish to call your attention to my former instructions on this subject, that is: You instruct every policeman to investigate all saloons with particular care and see that they observe the law in every respect. You must require these officers to comply with my instructions in the future.

Very respectfully,

C. E. KELLY, mayor.

many small towns where the telegraph companies have offices, the telegraph and mail business could be handled readily by the same employees. It is evident that the separate maintenance of the two services under present conditions results in needless expense.

After postmaster Hitchcock had been in conference with president Taft for more than an hour today, an authoritative statement was made at the white house that there had been a friction between the president and the postmaster general over the latter's proposed reorganization that the government acquire and operate all telegraph lines.

MISSING HERESS IS FOUND WORKING AS NEW YORK NURSE

Declares There Was No Man In the Case, But One Appears.

New York, N. Y., Jan. 15.—Violet Buehler, the missing Chicago heiress, was arrested at the corner of First avenue and 10th street this morning and taken to the police station. She had been working in the neighborhood, the police say, taking care of a sick woman.

Miss Buehler admitted her identity and told the police that she came to New York about a month ago with the idea of seeing the world. She declared that no man had anything to do with her leaving her home.

She said that after her money began to get low she decided to get a position and answered a newspaper advertisement for a nurse. She was employed by Mrs. Anna Brett, in East 10th street.

For more than three weeks, Miss Buehler, who is said to be heiress to an estate worth several thousand dollars, had been acting as a nurse for the mother of Mrs. Brett, as well as doing light domestic work.

Tells About Jack Clune.

Miss Buehler said that she was unaccompanied when she left Chicago, but immediately afterwards told about Jack Clune, a restaurant man she had known in Chicago and whom she met in this city soon after her arrival.

Miss Buehler said that Jack was a fine fellow and that she hoped to be married to him some day when they saved up money enough.

The girl scribbled a letter just before leaving the Brett home and left it on the bureau in her room. This note, written in lead pencil, was given out as follows by the police:

"Jack:—Don't give up 'hun.' I must go. Will write soon as possible. I am so nervous.

Bye.

A postscript ran: "Stick to me Jack, and everything will be ok."

No Kissing Permitted.

After the girl had been taken to the children's court, Clune appeared, in passing through the corridor Violet saw him, and, running to him, threw her arms about his neck. Clune bent forward to kiss her, but detective Mulligan pushed him away.

"WORLD OF WHITE" SALE AT POPULAR THINGS STORE WITH EAGER BUYERS

The first day of the "World of White" sale at the Popular Dry Goods store, which opened Monday morning, drew record breaking crowds from the time the doors were opened at 3 o'clock in the morning. By the way the crowds of eager shoppers were thronging the store and anxious to investigate the values being offered, it looked as though it would be an impossibility to close the store at the regular hour of six.

The window displays are enough to attract and convert the most pronounced sale evader, and to those who realize the greatness of values offered and the amazing reduction from the regular price, the sale is a most welcome event.

The "World of White" is amplified in the window decorations. In one window my lady, in most fetching creation of lace and silk, is seated at her toilet table, surrounded by a bewildering display of dainty underlinen, and every feminine heart and whose great reduction in price brings these articles within the reach of every pocket.

Another window is most alluring to lovers of things dainty and beautiful. The window decorations in this window are a masterpiece of hand embroidery. It is truly a feast for the eyes. Beautiful all over embroidered robes, hands of every size and color, are on display at values that seem most astonishing.

Decorations Beautiful.

The "World of White" is emphasized further by white arches at every aisle, surrounded by white garlands and white ribbons. The decorations are worth journeying a long distance to see.
